Public Advisory

The Ministry of Home Affairs is reminding the general public that it is unlawful to erect roadblocks and to set fires on the road or to private property. Protestors are urged to undertake peaceful protest action.

The Guyana Police Force as part of the joint services, is mandated to maintain law and order and to insure that criminal elements do not take advantage of the killing of the innocent for nefarious gains.

Co-operation with the Guyana Police Force is essential to the restoration to law and order.
