

Ministry of Home Affairs

Public Advisory

The Ministry of Home Affairs wishes to advise the travelling public to be extremely cautious in attempting to traverse the West Coast Berbice area which is still unsettled due to illegal road blocks and attacks on civilians.

The area is reported as returning to some normalcy, but persons are advised to still restrict travel to urgent and emergency journeys only, until further advised.